

A floral quiz - answers

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------|
| 1. Give me your answer, do! | Daisy Daisy |
| 2. His father kept a diary | Lupin Pooter |
| 3. "Small and white, clean and bright" | Edelweiss |
| 4. Bill and Ben | The flowerpot men |
| 5. Famous for her candlelight suppers... | Hyacinth Bouquet |
| 6. ...and renowned for her peppermint drops | Little Buttercup |
| 7. Hands that wash dishes need protecting with these | Marigolds |
| 8. Travel by train here in Sussex | The Bluebell Railway |
| 9. She helped a bonnie "maid" to escape | Flora Macdonald |
| 10. Confectionery made by Bill | Sweet William |
| 11. Olav Kavli created this in 1924 | Primula cheese |
| 12. With four leaves, lucky for some | Clover |
| 13. She played the part of DCS Foyle's driver | Honeysuckle Weeks |
| 14. Upon reflection he fell in love | Narcissus |
| 15. Flagged up by a pupil? | Iris |
| 16. They are shining in Picardy | Roses |
| 17. The honeysuckle's proposal of marriage proved fatal to her | Bindweed |
| 18. Morgan acted as her chauffeur in 1989 | Miss Daisy |
| 19. We seek him here, we seek him there | The Scarlet Pimpernel |
| 20. An unforgettable herb | Rosemary |
| 21. She weeps alone among the onions | Petunia |
| 22. The pleasurable way of life | The primrose path |
| 23. Are these biblical flowers lazy? | The lilies of the field |
| 24. They plotted to export Eiffel Towers – to France! | The Lavender Hill Mob |
| 25. This company has protected our shoes since 1906 | Cherry Blossom |
| 26. The sequel to " Flowers in the attic " | Petals on the wind |
| 27. Milk product with a flowery name | Carnation |
| 28. clip_image002
Interflora | |
| 29. Is this at its best before lunch? | Morning glory |
| 30. A French novel which became a play and an opera | La dame aux camélias |
| 31. Mohavea confertiflora – spooky! | Ghost flower |
| 32. Neutral shade of paint | Magnolia |
| 33. Icy precipitation | Snowdrop |
| 34. These "bulbles" burst in 1637 | Tulips |
| 35. Are these fit for fingers? | Foxgloves |
| 36. A perennial means of ascent in Genesis 28 | Jacob's ladder |
| 37. Ivor gathered them in the spring | Lilacs |
| 38. It can be plucked – in more senses than one | Viola |
| 39. A perfect example of heliotropism | Sunflower |
| 40. She wrote The Towers of Trebizond | Rose Macaulay |
| 41. Wear one on March 1st | Daffodil |
| 42. Sounds as if you could eat these or grow them | Palma Violets |
| 43. A fast runner now stationary at Kempton Park | Desert Orchid |
| 44. Essential components of "Chubby Bunny" | Marshmallows |
| 45. Noel's capital celebration | London Pride |
| 46. "Tall, dark and drinksome", said one advert | Dandelion and burdock |
| 47. Wear one behind your ear, or race in it? | Lotus |

- | | |
|--|-----------------|
| 48. Sing-a-ling with Rod | Purple heather |
| 49. Female footwear | Lady's slipper |
| 50. From Amsterdam, of course | Tulips |
| 51. Hippie feature you might find in the Old Town | Flower power |
| 52. A new one would sweep clean... | Broom |
| 53. ...while this would make glass clean | Bottlebrush |
| 54. Infantile respiration | Baby's breath |
| 55. This club's mascot is Jaggy MacBee | Partick Thistle |
| 56. Miss Jacques' sewing aid?
pincushion | Hattie's |
| 57. Best cast as a stupid boy | Ian Lavender |
| 58. Not asked to dance? | Wallflower |
| 59. There were 888,246 at the Tower | Poppies |
| 60. Ring this to get into the form | Harebell |
| 61. Mrs Popple's own flower | Fuchsia |
| 62. A Conservative smoker? | Fumitory |
| 63. Feline sweetmeat | Catmint |
| 64. Best not to take off any clothes till this is out! May | |
- ...
65. Favoured by the Duke of Burgundy...Cowslip (7)
 66. ...and chickens and herbalists alike chickweed (9)
 67. She was much loved by Harlequin Columbine (9)
 68. Atkinsons said its perfume was "as exciting as a first kiss" California Poppy (10,5)
 69. Appropriate clothing for Rupert? Bear's Breeches(5,8)
 70. Up to 3 feet in diameter, the world's largest flower Rafflesia arnoldii(9,8)